10. Access To Personnel Files

General movement for Rural Education and Environment maintains a personnel file on each employee. The personnel file includes information such as the employee's job application, resume, record of training, documentation of performance appraisal and salary increases, and other employment record. Personnel files are the property of General movement for Rural Education and Environment, and access to the information they contain is restricted. Generally, only HUMAN RESOURCE personnel will have access to these files. Employees who wish to review to their own file should contact the HUMAN RESOURCE with reasonable advance notice. Employee may review their own personnel files in General movement for Rural Education and Environment office and in the presence of an individual appointed by General movement for Rural Education and Environment to maintain the files.

11. Personnel Data Change

It is the responsibility of each employee to promptly notify General movement for Rural Education and Environment of any changes in personnel data. Personal mailing addresses, telephone numbers, numbers and name of the dependents, individuals to be contacted in the event of emergency, educational accomplishments, and other such status reports should be accurate and current at all times. If any personal data is changed, notify the HUMAN RESOURCE DEPARTMENT.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Employees and associated members are strongly encouraged to discuss job performance and goals on an informal, day-to- day basis. Performance evaluations are conducted to provide both Head of the department and employees the opportunity to discuss job tasks, identify and correct weaknesses, encourage and recognize strengths and discuss positive, purposeful approaches for meeting goals.

The performance appraisal purely targets the personal growth of the employee. It is not linked to the salary increment in any way.

General movement for Rural Education and Environment makes every effort to create and maintain accurate job descriptions for all positions within the organization. Each description includes the objectives to be met, the purpose of the job and the roles and responsibilities involved.

General movement for Rural Education and Environment maintains job descriptions to aid in orienting new member to their jobs, identifying the requirements and each position, establishing hiring criteria, setting standards for employee performance evaluations.

The HUMAN RESOURCE DEPARTMENT prepares job descriptions when new positions are created. Existing job descriptions are also reviewed and revised in order to ensure that they are up to date. Job descriptions may also be rewritten periodically to reflect any changes in the positions, duties and responsibilities. All employees will be expected to help ensure that their job descriptions are accurate and current, reflecting the work being done.

Employee should remember that job descriptions do not necessarily cover every task or duty that might be assigned, and that additional responsibilities may be assigned as necessary.

Contact the HUMAN RESOURCE DEPARTMENT if you have any questions or concerns about your job description.

INDIVIDUAL STAFF DEVELOPMENT

A principle enshrined at the heart of General movement for Rural Education and Environment is that each member of staff, at whatever level, has the right to develop herself/ himself to the limit of his / her potential.
